Mr. William F. Donnelly
Deputy Director for Administration
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Donnelly:

Thank you very much for your letter dated December 1, 1987.
I can well understand why your selection process should remain firmly under your staff's control.

However, because I am so convinced that my projective technique can assist along with your other procedures in improving selection, I would like the opportunity to fly to Washington to discuss this matter with you. I have been working on this projective technique for more than 30 years and have learned a great deal more about its predictive capability than at the time of its original development. For patriotic reasons, I would be willing to release this instrument to your staff.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Paul Chernuchin, Ph. D.
